

For immediate use

Angel:legnA

Premiere at God's House Tower as part of Southampton Film Week

"We should long ago have become angels had we been capable of paying attention to the experience of art, and allowing ourselves to be changed in accordance with the ideals it expresses."

*Sculpting in Time:
Reflections on the Cinema*

Andrei Tarkovsky

Kye Wilson's new moving-image artwork Angel:legnA employs the motifs and working methods of celebrated film-maker Andrei Tarkovsky to explore collective human experience.

Interweaving Tarkovsky's memories and dreams with those of participants, Wilson consciously reimagines notions of self in order to demonstrate how readily everyone can engage with and contribute to quality art.

Kye Wilson is a Creative Lab Associate to the New Theatre Royal Portsmouth.

Angel:legnA is supported by public funding from the National Lottery through Arts Council England and by Southampton Cultural Development Trust.

Exhibition 13-19 November 2017, open 12-5pm each day

Private View and Artist Talk Monday 13 November, 5.30-8pm

Venue God's House Tower, Winkle Street, Southampton, SO14 2NY

Price Free

About

Kye Wilson is an award winning visual artist and film-maker who uses moving-image to create films, video art and installations, including multi-disciplinary, site-specific, and live artworks. His works have been performed, exhibited and screened nationally and internationally.

Keep in touch

Twitter @kyewilson

Twitter hash tag #AngellegnA

Facebook kye.wilson.35

www.kyewilson.co.uk

Notes to editors

Press contact Kye Wilson on 07760 483 403 or via email: studio@kyewilson.co.uk

November 2017

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

